

LexisNexis

LexisNexis is actively involved in generating debate within the legal sector, face to face, in print and online through its sites and around community forums.

Although entirely independent, Halsbury's Law Exchange is an example of the commitment shown by LexisNexis to being at the forefront of innovative thinking with respect to legal development. LexisNexis will therefore seek to create awareness of Halsbury's Law Exchange in its magazines and associated sites, as well as the national and legal press.

Working in union with Halsbury's Law Exchange, the LexisNexis Magazines and Journals department. For more information see <http://www.lnbconnect.co.uk>
